10. Notice of termination:

a. You will be required to give at least 2 months of written notice to the Company. If you ask for release from your duties before the expiration of your notice period the Company will be entitled to recover from you as 'salary in lieu of notice', an amount equivalent to the shortfall in notice period at the rate of your basic salary and/or to deduct such amount from any amounts which may be payable to you by the Company. However, the Company reserves the right to relieve you only at the end of your notice period, based on the work requirements prevailing at the time.

b. The Company, at its sole discretion shall be entitled to terminate your employment by giving you either 2 months of notice in writing or equivalent basic salary in lieu thereof. In case of termination by the Company in compliance of this section, you shall waive irrevocably and unconditionally release, acquit, covenant not to sue and forever discharge Company and each of Company owners, stockholders, predecessors, successors, assigns, agents, directors, officers, employees, representatives, attorneys, divisions, subsidiaries, affiliates, and all persons acting by, through, under or in concert with any of them from any and all charges, complaints, claims, liabilities, obligations, promises, agreements, controversies, damages, actions, causes of action, suits, rights, demands, costs, losses, debts and expenses (including attorney's fees and costs actually incurred), of any nature whatsoever, known or unknown pertaining directly or indirectly related to your employment with the Company.

c. The Company follows a differential notice period policy linked to an employee's profile code (Grade), with the maximum notice period being up to 3 months. You agree that your notice period will be governed by the Company's notice period policy in force, as applicable to your particular profile code(Grade).

d. During any period of notice you may be required by the Company, in its absolute discretion not to contact its employees, customers or suppliers, not to attend at your place of work at any time and not to perform any duties for the Company or to perform only such duties, specific projects or tasks that are assigned to you expressly by the Company, for such period and at such place or places (including, without limitation, your home) as the Company deems appropriate, provided that you will be entitled to receive full pay and benefits (excluding any bonus or commission payments) during such period. For the avoidance of doubt, you will remain the Company's employee during any such period and may not carry out any work for any third party.

e. The Company reserves the right to terminate your contract without notice, or pay in lieu of notice, if, after a reasonable investigation, it has reasonable grounds to believe you are guilty of serious misconduct.

f. Upon termination of employment with the company for any reason, you will immediately deliver to the Company all tangible, written, graphical, machine readable and other materials (including all copies) in your possession containing or disclosing any proprietary or confidential Information.
